

CALL FOR PAPERS: RE-ENCOUNTER WITH KANT – TRADITION AND CONTEMPORARY APPROACHES

17th-20th March, 2020.

Submission deadline:

December 30th, 2019.

Many traditions of thinking have established a dialogue between the different aspects of Kant's philosophy. In fact, many important contemporary trends of thought, such as phenomenology, have held a continuous reference to critical Kantian thinking. The critical review or reappropriation of some essential theses of the theoretical and practical philosophy of Kant have had a substantive presence in the building of modern and contemporary philosophy. For their part, different fields like Law, Ethics, Aesthetics, or some branches of science, have maintained Kant in a privileged position in discussions to the present day.

The aim of the international conference «Re-encounter with Kant – Tradition and contemporary approaches» is to create a space for reflection on and discussion of the philosopher of Königsberg. This will allow a thorough enquiry into his standing, his thinking and his significance today. Supported by Universidad Complutense de Madrid (UCM), Universidad Autónoma de Madrid (UAM), Universidad Pontificia Comillas (UPC) & Universidad Nacional a Distancia (UNED), it takes place from 17th to 20th March of 2020 in Madrid, specifically in the Philosophy Department of UCM and Alberto Aguilera campus of UPC.

For this conference, we invite all interested researchers to submit abstracts and to contribute their proposals for this meeting. The text in Word format should have a heading and should not exceed 500 words. Furthermore, the text ought to explain the thematic axis in which the following topics could be contextualized:

1. Kantian aetas and Neo-Kantianism.
2. The reception of Kantian philosophy in phenomenology.
3. The significance of kantianism in contemporary political philosophy, ethics and law.
4. Epistemology and theory of science in Kant.
5. Kant and contemporary aesthetic.
6. Metaphysics and knowledge in Kant.

The submission should include a double-blind version with any identification details removed. Moreover a short CV of no more than 300 words needs to be added containing the author's position and affiliation, as well as contact information. The submission deadline is 30th December and it has to be sent before that date to: reencuentroconkant@gmail.com

The acceptance (or not) will be communicated before January 10th. The length for presentations is 20 minutes and 10 minutes after for discussion. The official languages of the Conference are Spanish, English and German.

Successful applicants will also need to complete an inscription form available on our website.
