

Department of Philosophy
Faculty of Arts and Philosophy
University of Pardubice

announces

CALL FOR PAPERS

for the 5th Czech-Spanish Philosophical Conference

Topics in Spanish Philosophy II

10th and 11th May 2018
University of Pardubice

The international conference is opened to all researchers including students interested in topics related to significant authors and schools of philosophy in Spanish speaking countries. The aim of the conference is to present interesting and culturally different philosophical conceptions to a wider audience.

Conference organisers:
Adriana Bečková
Jana Stejskalová

Further information:

Thirty minutes will be allowed for each paper, twenty minutes for the presentation itself and ten minutes for the discussion.

Those interested in active participation in the conference please send the attached form and abstract in the extent of 800 – 1500 signs and send it to the e-mail address spanish.philosophers@gmail.com by the 31st March 2018. The participants will be notified whether or not they have been accepted to take part in the conference by the 10th April 2018.

Conference language is English.

The written version of each paper will be published in conference volume.

The organisers cannot cover the participant's transport or accommodation expenses. However, they will be happy to provide help in finding accommodation, especially to international participants.

There is no conference fee.

Important dates:

Deadline for registration and abstracts: 31st March 2018

Notification of acceptance: 10th April 2018

Conference dates: 10th and 11th May 2018

Submission Deadline for the conference volume: 30th September 2018

Contact:

Department of Philosophy Faculty of Arts and Philosophy
University of Pardubice
Stavařov 97
532 10 Pardubice 2

E-mail: spanish.philosophers@gmail.com

<http://filosofie.upce.cz> <http://facebook.com/filosofie.pardubice>

<http://www.upce.cz/ff/kf.html>

We look forward to your participation!